2. Customer account / registration data / personal data

If you provide your name, address and other contact details during registration, it is your voluntary decision to provide this information to Yannick Andrea GmbH in order to use the services offered by the online Photo Archive of Yannick Andrea GmbH. During the further registration process, your consent to this processing will be obtained and reference will be made to this data protection declaration.

This data is collected and stored exclusively for pre-contractual services, for the fulfilment of the contract, for ordering or for the purpose of customer care (e.g. an overview of your previous shopping baskets, orders).

After our released registration we then save the IP address and the date of your registration and time and with every login, so that your data can be restored in case of questions, possible system failures and possible errors. This data will not be passed on to third parties.

You can revoke the consent given to us to open and maintain your customer account at any time with effect. To do so, you only need to inform us of your revocation.

The data collected in this respect will be deleted as soon as the processing is no longer necessary. However, we must observe tax and legal retention periods.

3. Cookies

You can prevent and or restrict the installation of cookies by adjusting your Internet browser settings. You can also delete already stored cookies at any time. However, the steps and measures required for this depend on the Internet browser you are using. If you have any questions, please use the help function or documentation of your Internet browser or contact its manufacturer or support.

If you prevent or restrict the installation of cookies, however, this may mean that not all functions of the Online Photo Archive of Yannick Andrea GmbH can be used to their full extent.

4. Contract implementation

The data transmitted by you for the use of our range of goods and/or services will be processed by us for the purpose of processing the contract and is required in this respect. Conclusion and processing of the contract are not possible without providing your data.

Within the scope of contract processing, we will pass on your data to the transport company commissioned with the delivery of goods or to the financial service provider, insofar as the transfer is necessary for the delivery of goods or for payment purposes.

5. Newsletter

If you register for our free newsletter, the data requested by you for this purpose, i.e. your e-mail address and - optionally - your name and address, will be transmitted to us. At the same time we save the IP address of the internet connection from which you access our website as well as the date and time of your registration. During the further registration process, we will obtain your consent to send you the newsletter, describe the content specifically and refer you to this data protection declaration. We use the data collected in the process exclusively for sending the newsletter.

You can revoke your consent to receive the newsletter at any time. To do so, you only need to inform us of your revocation or click on the unsubscribe link contained in every newsletter.

6. Server data / data security

For technical reasons, in particular to ensure a secure and stable online image archive, data is transmitted to us or to our web space provider by your Internet browser.

These so-called server log files are used to record, among other things, the type and version of your Internet browser, the operating system, the website from which you have switched to our online image archive (referrer URL), the website(s) of our online image archive that you visit, the date and time of the respective access, and the IP address of the Internet connection from which the use of our online image archive takes place.

This data is temporarily stored, but not together with other data about you.

The data will be deleted after seven days at the latest, unless further storage is required for evidence purposes. Otherwise, the data is completely or partially excluded from deletion until the final clarification of an incident.

7. Your rights as a person affected by the data processing

The collected personal data is only used to be able to use the offer of the online Photo Archive of Yannick Andrea GmbH.

You can view, change or delete the data you have entered at any time by logging in. You can obtain information on the use of your data from the data controller of Yannick Andrea GmbH at any time. Your data will be treated confidentially and will not be passed on to third parties, unless ordered by a court of law.

The personal data will be deleted or blocked as soon as the purpose of the storage no longer applies, the deletion of the data is not opposed by any legal storage obligations and no claims can be made by the image archive.

8. Examination of creditworthiness

As far as we offer you the basic possibility of payment by invoice within the scope of our range of goods or services and you make use of this option, we reserve the right to obtain a credit report.

9. Changes of this data protection regulations

To ensure that this data protection declaration always complies with current legal requirements, we reserve the right to make appropriate adjustments. Should there be significant changes in the collection, use and/or transfer of the personal data you have provided, we will clearly inform you of this in advance. By using the online image archive of Yannick Andrea GmbH you agree to the current data protection regulations.
